ELABORATE FAIR PLANNED BY KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

Members of Order Will Open Handsome New Home With Bazaar, Lasting Entire Week.

Starting with a grand parade on Monday evening, April 13, and ending with a big ball and a general good time on Saturday night, April 24, the Knights of Pythias of Terre Haute will hold a six days' fair at their new Pythian temple on South Eighth street. It is claimed this fair will surpass anything ever held in lodge circles in this city.

In the parade there will be the uniform ranks of K. of P.'s and all other uniform bodies and subordinate lodges in Terre Haute. The whole course of march will be illuminated with a great display of fire-works and much red light, and all will swing along to the stirring strains of music from a number of bands engaged for this special occasion. A rousing reception is planned for the marchers and the general public when the marchers return to the new temple. From that minute on to the end of the week there will be something doing every minute of the day and until late at night.

Thirty Booths Will Fill Building.

There will be no less than thirty booths scattered over the building from the banquet hall on the first floor to the large lodge room on the top floor. There will be the flower booth with pretty girls offering their choice blossoms. Bazaars will meet the visitor on every side. A fish pond will be management of the fair during the daytime and will play a great part in the night programs. During the afternoons progressive euchre will be played and every night there will be dancing, two good orchestras having been provided.
